

Nate Wilson (Reform) - Dist. 67

Updated response for Question #7

While I still support fidelity to constitutions, I have come to believe that our constitution should be changed to allow for more accountability to the citizenry for the judicial branch of government, such as having Senate confirmation of judicial appointments.